Brett Brown Actor and Singer

I am delighted to endorse Brett's fund-raising efforts to support his debut vocal recording under the musical direction of Maestro Chong Lim AM, Australia's premiere recording producer.

Brett is a prodigious talent in all areas of the performing arts. I have followed his progress since his Secondary School days and through his under-graduate training at the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art (2006 - 2009).

His early career has seen him perform in numerous professional productions including a period with the Royal Shakespeare Company, West End productions including the musical Dear World directed by Dame Gillian Lynne DBE and an international tour of his one-man Henry V, to great acclaim.

In addition, his performance in the Academy Award winning film The Theory of Everything and his solo shows and concerts in Australia and the United Kingdom have furthered his career in both singing and acting. He now seeks to make a recording demonstrating his vocal repertoire which effortlessly straddles the Baroque to 21st Century Contemporary song.

I hope that many people will support this project with enthusiasm and generosity. Your contributions and practical encouragement will see this recording project come to fruition.

Brett is a young artist worthy of this opportunity.

Yours gratefully
